

MORNING APPEAL

SATURDAY.....MAY 4

THE DIVORCE QUESTION.

The New York Herald has been gathering the opinions of leading people in this country, male and female, about marriage and divorce. Such people as Bishop Whitehead, Joseph Cook, President De Costa of the White Cross Society, Frances E. Willard, and some few others, are in favor of a National law regulating divorce. Kate Field says that "Legislators had better beware how they put a premium on vice by forging the marital chain so tight as to make a separation too difficult," and Annie Jenness Miller backs Miss Field up with the demand, "Make the gateway as wide as possible." William S. Holman and Congressman McAdoo assert that no National law is wanted, as the regulation of marriage belongs exclusively to the field of State legislation. Marion Harland favors such amendment of the law as will forbid either of the divorced parties to marry again. Sarah K. Bolton, "having seen women and little children made dependent on charity through intemperance and failure to support, cannot think that infidelity should be the only cause for divorce."

Take it all in all, the weight of public sentiment is strongly in favor of either a National law regulating divorce, or a uniform law in all the States, in accordance with which a woman legally married in one State would find herself legally married in every State.

People are getting new ideas about marriage and divorce. The moralists deplore the fact that divorces are getting easier every year. They do not look beneath the surface of things. No law should compel people of uncongenial temperaments to live together and people the earth with unwelcome progeny. People who have made a careful investigation of the subject, claim, and we believe that they have strong grounds for their claim, that nearly all the crime and vice in the world can be traced back to the evil of uncongenial temperaments being linked together by a law which perpetuates the mistakes made by people who marry thoughtlessly, and who in many instances are forced into matrimonial alliances by misguided friends, when they would have made other choice if left to themselves.

A STATE DEVELOPER.

C. C. Powning, editor and proprietor of the Nevada State Journal, offers that paper and his other property in Reno for sale, and intends removing to San Francisco. Mr. Powning has been publishing a paper in Reno for twenty-one years, and has done as much towards the prosperity of that city as anyone in it. And he used to pack drills in the Grass Valley mines when he was a small boy, and he did that well.—Grass Valley Telegraph.

The State can ill afford to lose such a rustling developer of its interests as C. C. Powning.

The APPEAL has had a good many differences with Mr. Powning during the bustle of political campaigns, but these differences do not close our eyes to the fact that he grew up in this State, fought his way valiantly to the front, made money here, and spent it here in a way that we wish others would imitate. He never fell asleep anywhere along the road, but was always fighting, planning and developing up one side and down the other, and his efforts added to the State's wealth, and his paper always sounded the clarion call of State advancement and State development. He has not only made two blades of grass grow where one grew before, but a thousand, and Reno will never have a citizen who will have fought harder for her interests than C. C. Powning.

The San Francisco Post has begun to illustrate. Its pictures, however, do not seem to be as high as the type. If the Post pressman will underlay with a sheet of 14-pound flat cap, the pictures will show as well as the type.

Says Eugene Field: "We have so great a respect for thorough-breads that we cannot suffer to pass unimproved this occasion to signify our disapproval of a growing tendency to apply the term 'thoroughbred' to a low and vicious class of men. A thoroughbred is essentially a gentleman, rapid though he may be, strict honor marks all his dealings with his fellow-men. His disregard for money is not his only virtue; he loves the truth and practices it; he is jealous of his integrity and guards it; he has a fondness for, but at the same time he honors, womankind; his own worst enemy, his weaknesses are invariably of such a character that they excite our sympathy, if not our admiration."

TRIUMPH.

TRIUMPH is a beautiful bay; stands 15.3 and weighs over 1,200 and is the fastest looker a man ever saw. He took the first premium for 3-year-old Stallions at the State Fair of 1888. TRIUMPH will make the Season the same as Gibraltar and Alpha. Terms, $30 for the season; $30 to insure.

PEDIGREE.

Triumph by Prompter, Prompter by Wilson's Blue Bull, the sire of more horses with records from 2 15 to 2 30 than any horse that ever lived. McL. E. Clement, Secretary of the Missouri Trotting and Racing Horse Breeder Association in writing to Dr. Hicks, of Sacramento, owner of Prompter, says that he would rather breed to Prompter than any Stallion that is alive to-day. Triumph's dam is the celebrated St. Clair mare, Lady Brighton, owned by Mr. M. Toomy of Sacramento. His dam is now over 20 years old and can trot in 2 40 any day in the week. Senator Stanford in his catalogue of 1887 was breeding to 26 St. Clair brood mares and the most of his horses that have made the best records for 2 3 and year-olds are out of St. Clair mares, namely: Fred Crocker dam by St. Clair, two year old record 2 23 1/2; Bonito, dam by St. Clair, 2 year old record 2 24 1/2; 3 year old record 2 18 1/2; Manzanita, dam by St. Clair, 4 year old record 2 16 fastest on record.

I have got 400 acres of pasture land enclosed and mares sent in care of me on the cars will be taken to the Ranch and bred and good care taken of them. Pasture, Two dollars per month, or will keep them up for $20 per month as I have over 100 fine box stalls. Accidents and escapes at owner's risk. There is a fine race track on the Ranch and I will take horses to train or colts to break at reasonable rates. I also have a few Gibraltar colts to sell. If you want a good colt can sell you one cheap. Positively no shooting allowed on the premises.
